Last years winner in the womens event was Wendy Robertson of Vancouver and she covered the distance in 2:58:27. Linda ran in 2:49:02 making her truly the new champ. Will Linda return? "I sure will!"

Some of the spectators came prepared to have fun. Three youngsters set-up at the turn around point on Estavan with a "GO FOR IT" sign and pompoms. They continually picked a number and cheered the runner on.

Seventy three year old Andy Green received enough cheers to help him finish and break his record for last year. Andy finished in 4:39:51. And was mugged and beaten in Bastion Square Thursday night, but forced himself to run because he did so much training. "I was really tired toward the end when I ran into that horrible wind" Greensaid, "but the crowd pulls you through, really."

The wind may have been the reason for 658 finishers from a starting field of 715.

The organized event of 1980 was somewhat different this year. Bus drivers were upset they weren't informed and rerouted as they had to drive by the runner, and traffic delays were lengthy due to no detours signs.
