INFORMATION IN GETTING TO AND FROM THE COHO FERRY.

Please be advised that the GoodLife Fitness Victoria Marathon is taking place on Sunday 13th of October from 8:00am to 2:00pm. Road closures for this race may interfere with you with getting to or from the Coho Ferry via your planned route so please review the attached map, plan a new route, and allow yourself a little extra time.

Please speak to the police or road marshals if you are delayed while waiting to cross any intersections. Explain that you're trying to get to the Coho or Victoria Clipper ferry and they will assist you to cross the race course safely.

If you are departing from Victoria, the Coho staff suggest that you arrive at the ferry terminal and park your car as early as possible prior to departure.

And if you're arriving in Victoria on the inbound sailing, please be patient when disembarking. Police and road marshals will help you to cross the race route when it's safe.

Directions

Leaving from COHO parking lot:

- 1) Drive down OSWEGO Street and follow the instructions of the marshals and police.

Arriving at the COHO:

- 1) Drive down DOUGLAS Street.

**Please Note: There are closures on Yates Street between Government St and Cook St from 7:45am to 9.30am

- 2) Turn right on Superior Street – You will be corralled in double lanes along Superior during the start of the 8k race that starts at 8:50 am. Don't worry, you will make the ferry. You are not alone. Once the race has cleared you will be allowed to go down Superior to Oswego.
- 3) Turn right onto OSWEGO Street.
- 4) Drive down to Belleville St at which point police will assist you to cross to the Coho ferry.

We apologise for any inconvenience, and thank you in anticipation for your patience and co-operation.
